

Assignments

Explain the nature and advanced full-text search of information.

Provide practical importance of robots in search of information.

Process the survey results in the individual steps.

Explain and test the possibilities of information retrieval from databases and information retrieval to the formation of case study.