

Gays and jobs

Discussion

Discuss these questions with a partner:

1. Are there any well-known gay people in your country in the following areas:

politics	TV	the military
the church	sport	the law
2. Are there more gay people in some professions than in others? Which ones? Why do you think that is?

Reading

Read the articles below and answer these questions:

1. Which article is about someone starting a job? What's the problem?
2. Which one is about someone leaving a job? Why is the person leaving?

SECOND OFFICER RESIGNS

Another senior naval officer resigned last night as a result of the Government's decision to allow homosexuals to join the armed forces.

Commander James MacDonald, 43, who fought in the war in Bosnia, said of the Government's decision: "There are many good military reasons why homosexuals should not be allowed into the armed forces. The Government, however, has chosen to make a decision for political and legal reasons."

Commander MacDonald's resignation came a day after Brigadier Howard Jones, 47, asked to retire early for similar reasons. Brigadier Jones said: "I have no personal problem with homosexuals, but I do believe strongly from both a moral and a military point of view that there is no place for them in the army. The Government has reached its decision for no good military reason."

ANGER OVER LESBIAN MAYOR

Janis Hewitt will be ready for some strong opposition when she becomes mayor of the small Welsh town of Llanford next week. She announced yesterday that her lesbian partner will be mayoress.

Ms Hewitt points out that she has never made any secret of her relationship and she sees no reason to start doing so now. "We have been together for 20 years," she said, "and we have never hidden the fact. It really shouldn't be a problem. There are more important issues, like getting a better life for people." Gareth James, chairman of the local Conservatives, disagrees strongly. "This has come as quite a shock," he said angrily. "It degrades the position of mayor. It is not the sort of thing we associate with this town. Things like this don't happen here."

True or false?

Read the articles again and decide if the following sentences are true (T) or false (F):

1. Both officers feel there are military reasons why gays should not be allowed in the armed forces.
2. Brigadier Jones has a personal dislike of homosexuals.
3. Janis Hewitt's lesbian relationship has been a secret for 20 years.
4. Gareth James is unhappy with the idea of Janis Hewitt's partner being the mayoress.

Discussion

Discuss these questions in small groups:

1. Do you think it is OK to have gay people in the armed forces? Why? Why not? What's the situation in your own country?
2. Should Janis Hewitt be allowed to choose her lesbian partner as mayoress? Would it be a problem in any way? Could this happen in your country?

Language

1. Look through the articles again and underline all the expressions with the word 'reason'.
2. One of the following patterns is wrong. Which one?
 - a. I see no reason to worry about it.
 - b. I see no reason not to employ her.
 - c. I see no reason why he shouldn't work here.
 - d. I see no reason of changing my mind.
 - e. I see no reason for getting upset about it.

3. Put these expressions into the sentences below:

the real reason some reason one good reason no reason

1. I can't think of why we shouldn't give him the job. He's the ideal candidate.
2. Nobody knows why he decided to resign, but there are lots of rumours around.
3. You can't sack someone for If you do, you'll be breaking the law.
4. For he thinks gays can't do the job properly, but he can't explain why.

4. Delete the word or phrase which does not fit this sentence:

She had to leave her job for personal, financial, medical, powerful, a number of reasons.

Discussion

Discuss these questions in pairs:

1. Do you think that there are any jobs which homosexuals should not be allowed to do?
Consider these:

teacher	child minder
priest	politician
nurse	doctor
TV presenter	police officer
2. Do you think people should have to declare their sexuality when applying for any of those jobs? If so, which ones?
3. Think of three reasons why an employer might not employ someone who is gay. Are any of these good reasons?
4. Would you employ a gay person? Why? Why not?
5. Can you think of any jobs which a gay person would be better at than someone who was straight (heterosexual)?
6. Have you ever worked with someone who was gay? Was their sexual orientation a problem?

