

Read this information about an international festival and then answer the questions.

FESTIVAL 22nd May – 9th June

ART

Displays of paintings, drawings and photographs from Europe and Asia are all part of the Festival programme, with a total of more than 400 pieces of work to be seen.

Early 20th century advertisements will be on display at this year's Festival. Copies of the above advertisement are on sale at the Box Office.

MUSIC

There will be a huge range of music in this year's Festival from 14th century dance music to modern jazz. Many famous musicians will be visiting the Festival as well as at least two internationally famous orchestras.

Lunchtime concerts – Every day of the Festival!

All lunchtime concerts begin at 1.00 p.m. and last approximately 55 minutes. Except on Monday 26th May* they are in the Guildhall; all tickets are priced £2.00.

* in the Church Hall.

HOW TO BOOK

Telephone reservations: 63362/66411 from 1st April.

Payment for tickets reserved by telephone must be received at the Festival Box Office within 3 days. The tickets will then be sent by post.

Personal booking: From 1st May the Festival Box Office will be open as follows:

Monday to Saturday 9.30 a.m. – 5.30 p.m.

Sunday (during the Festival only) 9.30 a.m. – 1.00 p.m.

Look at the information and then put a cross in the box for numbers 1–10 if a statement is correct.

1. The Festival begins in May.
2. The Festival includes many kinds of music.
3. You can see more than 400 drawings in the art show.
4. The lunchtime concerts are more than an hour long.
5. You can buy copies of the early 20th century advertisements.
6. Tickets for the concerts cost between £3.00 and £6.00.
7. All the concerts are in the Guildhall.
8. You can book by phone from April 1st.
9. The box office is open every day in May.
10. You can apply for tickets in person in April.